

What a super sunny and amazing week!

We have spent a lot of time outside this week learning new things along with enjoying the sun.

The classes also took part in game workshops.

We look forward to learning new things next week.

